Below the navigation bar, the login form consists of two input fields: 'Email' with the value 'admin' and 'Password' with masked characters. A teal 'Log in' button is positioned below these fields. At the bottom of the page, there is a footer section divided into two columns. The left column, titled 'Connect with us', includes a 'Contact us' link, a phone number '+1 555 123 8069', an email address 'info@yourcompany.example.com', and a row of social media icons for Facebook, Twitter, LinkedIn, YouTube, Google+, and Instagram. The right column, titled 'YourCompany - About us', contains a paragraph about the company's mission to improve life through disruptive products and another paragraph stating that their products are designed for small to medium-sized companies.
